Vere dignum et iustum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine, sancte Pater, omnipotens aeternae Deus. Ad cuius immensam gloriam pertinere cognoscimus ut mortalibus tua deitate succurreres; sed et nobis provideres de ipsa mortalitate nostra remedium, et perditos quosque unde perierant, inde salvares, per Christum Dominum nostrum. Per quem maiestatem tuam adorant exercitus Angelorum, ante conspectum tuum in aeternitate laetantium. Cum quibus et nostras voces ut admitti iubeas, deprecamur, socia exsultatione dicentes: [sequitur ‘Sanctus’]

Third Preface of Sundays

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we give you thanks always and everywhere, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God. We recognize your boundless glory in the way you have rescued us mortals by your divine power while using our very mortality as the remedy; so that through Christ our Lord your salvation of the lost would spring from the same place whence they had perished. Though him the hosts of angels in your presence adore your majesty with eternal rejoicing. We pray that by your command our voices may blend with theirs as together we proclaim in exultation: [followed by ‘Sanctus’]

Introibo ad altare Dei, ad Deum qui laetificat iuventutem meam.

I will go in unto the altar of God, to God in whom my youth rejoices.

Post Communionem

Deus, qui nos de uno pane et de uno calice participes esse voluisti, da nobis, quaesumus, ita vivere, ut, unum in Christo effecti, fructum afferamus pro mundi salute gaudentes. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

God our Father, you willed that we should share the one bread and the one chalice. Please grant that we may live in such a way that we are made one in Christ, and may work joyfully and effectively for the salvation of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
